

Velocity Outdoor Announces Acquisition of Ravin Crossbows

Acquisition expands Velocity's Presence in the Outdoor Market with the Premier Brand for Innovative Crossbow Technologies

(Bloomfield, NY) September 4, 2018– Velocity Outdoor, Inc. (parent company for leading brands such as Crosman and Benjamin Airguns, CenterPoint Archery and Optics, LaserMax, and GameFace Airsoft), today announces the acquisition of Ravin Crossbows, the most revolutionary crossbow company in the outdoor industry.

Headquartered in Superior, WI, Ravin Crossbows is a leading designer, manufacturer and innovator of crossbows and accessories. Ravin primarily focuses on the higher-end segment of the crossbow market and has developed significant intellectual property related to the advancement of crossbow technology, quickly establishing a reputation as a manufacturer of the industry's most dependable, durable, accurate and technologically-advanced line of crossbows.

Robert Beckwith, CEO of Velocity, commented, "Ravin Crossbows are hands-down the most innovative and exciting products in the archery space right now. We are thrilled to be adding Ravin's high quality, premium performance and intellectual property to the company as a complement to our well established, market-leading CenterPoint archery business."

Ravin joins the Velocity Outdoor portfolio of leading brands including Crosman and Benjamin Airguns, CenterPoint Archery and Optics, LaserMax, Copperhead, and GameFace Airsoft.
